

Curriculum vitae

Naam:	KARSTEN, Rudolf Henri
Born:	14th of September, 1948, at Berkhout, The Netherlands
Profession:	dentist/periodontist
1967-1973	study of dentistry, Sub-faculty of Dentistry, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
1969-1972	chair of the student council of the Sub-faculty of Dentistry
1971-1973	student assistant at the Department of Periodontology, Sub-faculty of Dentistry
1973-1975	military service at the Royal Dutch Navy
1975	interruption of military service for a period of six months, working as a dentist at the Mlambe Mission Hospital, Lunzu, Malawi
1974	founding Dental Health International Netherlands (DHIN; official foundation in March, 1976), aimed at cooperation with, and help to low income countries all over the world, with respect to improvement of dental care in these countries
1975-2013	lecturer in Periodontology, Radboud University College of Dental Sciences, Nijmegen, The Netherlands
1977	research mission to Egypt, on request of the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs, to discuss a possible cooperation between Egypt and The Netherlands, regarding the provision of funds for the purchase of dental equipment for use in dental clinics in Egypt
1977-1981	president of Dental Health International Netherlands (DHIN)
1978-1981	chair of the Committee for Dental Development Cooperation of the Radboud University College of Dental Sciences
1981-1984	visiting lecturer in Periodontology at Muhimbili Medical Centre, Division of Dentistry (now called Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences, School of Dentistry), Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, and coordinating the cooperation between the Centre, and the College of Dental Sciences Nijmegen, aimed at the establishment of a training program for dentists in and for Tanzania, and subsequently for the countries of the SADCC Economic Region. The training started in July, 1979, with the help of both the College of Dental Sciences of Nijmegen, and the Universities of Helsinki, and of Kuopio, both in Finland
1984-1989	full time participation in epidemiological research into the state of dental and oral health of the Dutch population (LEOT)
1986-1989	lecturer NTA (National Course for Tropical Medical Doctors at the Royal Tropical Institute, KIT, Amsterdam), familiarizing medical doctors leaving for tropical countries, with aspects of dental, periodontal, and oral diseases, occurring in those countries
1997	participation in short courses on periodontal diseases for undergraduate students of dentistry in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
1999-2010	development of, and providing the new Periodontal curriculum for Nijmegen undergraduate students of dentistry
2003	production of an off-line digital course on Basic Periodontal Care, and presentation of this course to the teaching staff of the dental school of the Medical University of Can Tho, Vietnam
2005-2013	international dental student exchange officer, coordinating interuniversity exchange of Nijmegen and foreign dental students, and visiting dental schools of Izmir (Turkey), Stockholm (Sweden), Leon (Nicaragua), and Concepcion (Chile)
2005-2011	providing short courses for fellow university lecturers from low income countries, on how to teach Periodontology to undergraduate dental students based on student centered learning principles, and the use of an digital learning environment
2013	retired from the Radboud University College of Dental Sciences
1971-2013	author and/or presenter of more than 40 scientific, and miscellaneous papers on dentistry related topics.